

EKAGRAH SEVA FOUNDATION

Cancellation Policy

Last Updated: June 2026

1. Purpose

This Cancellation Policy outlines the terms governing cancellation requests related to donations made to Ekagrah Seva Foundation.

2. Donation Cancellation

Donations made to Ekagrah Seva Foundation are voluntary contributions intended to support charitable activities and social welfare programs. Once a donation has been successfully processed, cancellation requests are generally not accepted.

3. Exceptional Cases

In exceptional circumstances, including technical errors or duplicate transactions, the Foundation may review cancellation-related requests on a case-by-case basis.

4. Foundation Discretion

Any review of a cancellation request shall be conducted solely at the discretion of Ekagrah Seva Foundation. Submission of a request does not guarantee approval.

5. Payment Gateway Transactions

Transactions processed through Razorpay or other authorized payment service providers are subject to their operational and technical procedures. Processing delays or failures beyond the Foundation's control shall not automatically qualify for cancellation.

6. Communication

Individuals seeking clarification regarding a transaction may contact the Foundation using the details below.
