

EKAGRAH SEVA FOUNDATION

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. How can I donate to Ekagrah Seva Foundation?

You can donate securely through the Foundation's website using available online payment methods.

2. Will I receive a donation receipt?

Yes. Donors receive a donation receipt after successful processing of their contribution.

3. Will I receive a donation certificate?

Yes. A donation certificate may be provided for eligible contributions and activities supported through the Foundation.

4. Will I receive photographs or videos of the activity?

The Foundation makes reasonable efforts to provide activity photographs, videos, and updates to maintain transparency and accountability.

5. How does the Foundation maintain transparency?

The Foundation follows a 100% transparency commitment by sharing receipts, certificates, activity updates, photographs, videos, and impact information wherever operationally feasible.

6. Are donations refundable?

No. Donations are generally non-refundable except in exceptional cases such as duplicate transactions or verified technical errors.

7. Is there a minimum donation amount?

No. Donations of any amount, including Rs. 1, are welcome and appreciated.

8. What payment methods are accepted?

Payments may be accepted through UPI, debit cards, credit cards, net banking, wallets, and other available online payment methods.

9. What is Project SRIJAN?

Project SRIJAN is an upcoming initiative focused on creating learning opportunities and educational support for children through community-based learning programs.

10. How can I volunteer with the Foundation?

Interested individuals may contact the Foundation through the website or official communication channels to explore volunteer opportunities.

11. How can I contact the Foundation?

Email: ekagrahfoundation@gmail.com

Phone: +91 95598 50029

12. What are the key focus areas of the Foundation?

The Foundation works in areas including food support, education support, hygiene initiatives, environmental sustainability, community welfare, and social impact programs.